POLICY BARS DUM-DUM PROBE

Bryan Replies to the Letter of Complaint From Germany's Ambassador.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Secretary Bryan today informed Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that the United States, in maintaining strict neutrality, is not investigating or commenting upon his charges that dum-dum bullets were being furnished from this country to the allies.

Secretary Bryan told the ambassador, however, that if he could furnish proof that forbidden war materials were being shipped by American firms President Wilson would use his influence to stop the traffic without involving legal or international questions.

REFERS TO DENIALS.
In a letter to Count Bernstorff, Secretary Bryan referred to denials of American manufacturers to his recent charge of dum-dum bullets and riot guns being furnished to the allies.

FRENCHMEN CHARGE OUTRAGES

Commission Reports Enemy's Officers Acted "Savagely and Inhumanly."

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Jan. 7, 12:35 p. m.—The commission appointed on September 22 to inquire into accusations that German officers had acted "savagely and inhumanly" against French civilians and soldiers, says in its report, made public today by the French Cabinet:

"We must conclude that there never has been a war between civilized nations of so savage and ferocious a character as that waged upon our soil by our implacable adversary. Pillage, ravaging, burning, murder are ordinary practices of our enemies, and facts collected in many instances prove that the German claims that the killing of civilians was due to firing of the population, are unfounded."

"We found proof of the existence in the German army not only of a systematic plan for burning villages, but the possession of elaborate material for this purpose, including torches, grenades, fuses, oil sprayers, sticks of inflammable matter and sacks of tablets composed of very inflammable compressed powder."

"The commission affirms that it has distinguished carefully between fires caused by bombardments and those said to have been set by hand when no fighting was in progress. It is stated that the object was to intimidate the population, spreading terror and panic ahead of the invaders."

OUTRAGES REPORTED.
"Ravishings of women and girls were frequent, that the number of cases known to the commission was only a small part of those which might be investigated," the commission says. "The victims of these outrages are generally refused to testify because it would compromise their future."

"It was only upon the demand of Georges Clemenceau, the former premier and others that the cabinet decided to make public the report."

"The conclusions of the commission, from about twenty newspaper columns, they review in detail instances which, the commission says, were established under oath from witnesses examined under the usual form of judicial inquiry."

"The commission supplied with great detail the testimony on which its conclusions are based. These depositions will be published later as a government document."

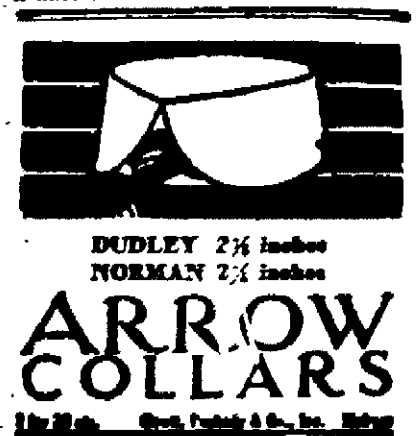

"Must Prove Misuse of Passports," Bernstorff

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador here, made his first comment today on the alleged misuse of passports by German reservists in the following statement:

"England had violated The Hague convention and the rules of international law by taking unarmed people off vessels, a proceeding against which the German government has complained to the neutral governments. In consequence of this proceeding German citizens were deprived of going home, and several may have tried to use false passports for this purpose because of their desire to defend their country, a motive which every good citizen will understand. If this really has been done it will have to be proved. In any case, however, German officials in this country had nothing whatever to do with it."

FIX LIVESTOCK RATES.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Fixed rates on livestock shipped from Arizona points to California destinations were established by the Interstate Commerce Commission to be effective February 15. On beef cattle the rates range from $24 a car for 240 cattle to $125 a car for 1000 cattle. Rates on sheep and goats are approximately 25 per cent lower. To these rates may be added not to exceed $2.50 a car for a branch line haul and $5 a car for a haul over 2 or more lines.

War Summary

By Associated Press.
The French war office asserts that the eastern end of the German line is being pushed backward at various places. In today's official statement mention is made of an important advance in the Woerthe district, resulting in the capture of a portion of the German first line. An advance in this district is continued, and it is threatened the German wedge in the French line which reaches southward to St. Mihiel. In Upper Alsace also the forward movement of the French is said to have continued. The German office, however, asserts that French attacks in Alsace were repulsed.

Beyond the German statement that the advance in Alsace is being continued slowly, there were few new details of the eastern campaign.

The German military government of Belgium today announced the arrest of Cardinal Mercier on account of a pastoral letter in which the cardinal was said to have advised Belgians not to recognize German authority.

England's reply to Washington's protest against British interference with American shipping will be altogether conciliatory, according to London dispatches, which say that apparently all danger of friction between the two nations has disappeared. England is willing to make all concessions which she deems not in direct conflict with the interests of the allies, although it is believed she will not relinquish the right to search American ships under exceptional circumstances.

An official Turkish announcement makes no mention of the disastrous defeat Russia states was inflicted on the Turkish forces which invaded the Caucasus. The report speaks of minor victories over the Russians by Turkish forces, which prevented further Russian advances. An indecisive naval battle between Turkish and Russian warships in the Black sea.

Activity of German Zeppelins along the English coast has revived, and a lecture as to a possible raid on England by these huge air craft. Several of the dirigibles are reported to have appeared near Dunkirk and are said to have turned toward the English coast.

from acts of hostility against the enemy. These recommendations are still in force. Our army alone is charged with the duty of our national defense. Let us know how to wait at its hands for final deliverance. Let the German army take the general interest demands, for we respect the regulations they (the Germans) impose on us so long as they do not attack our liberty of Christian conscience or the dignity of our patriotism."

GOVERNMENT DENIES IT.
THE HAGUE, Netherlands, via London, Jan. 7, 3 p. m.—The German military government in Belgium today characterized the report published in the Amsterdam Tilt that Cardinal Mercier, archbishop of Malines, had been arrested as absolutely false. The cardinal has neither been detained in the bishop's palace at Malines nor placed under police surveillance of any sort, the official statement says. It also denied that any priests have been arrested.

The denial is silent on the case of Dessaux, the printer, who published the cardinal's Christmas pastoral letter, but it is understood the story concerning him also is a fabrication. The German are said to have taken the position that at this time the point where they are the legal or illegal rulers of Belgium is not at issue and consequently there will be no action on their part.

BERLIN DEFENDS ACT.
By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, Jan. 7, via London.—According to the Berlin correspondent of the Tilt, the following communication has been published concerning the pastoral letter to the Cardinal of Belgium, who is reported to have been arrested by the German military authorities for advising Belgians not to give allegiance to the German administration:

"Everybody pro-German agrees that the cardinal was justified in endeavoring in his pastoral letters to console the civilian population in these distressing severe times, and in counseling them to keep quiet. But the German military government in Belgium, publishes a dispatch from Bergen-Op-Zoom, Netherlands, purporting to confirm the statements that the cardinal was placed under arrest. Tilt asserts that German guards were stationed outside the cardinal's place last Saturday; that the cardinal demanded of the German commander that he be allowed to visit Antwerp on Sunday; and another place on Monday, but this permission was refused. The Tilt also says that a majority of the Antwerp clergy has been arrested."

U. S. Passports Must Have Consular Stamp

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Jan. 7, 1 p. m.—All passports issued by the State Department at Washington will in the future have to be stamped by the American Embassy in London, if the traveler passes through London. Furthermore, the bearers of American passports, previous to leaving England for the continent, will have to submit their passports to the consul in London of the country to which they are going, for the consular stamp.

All the Americans who reached England yesterday on board the steamer Lusitania have been requested to observe the first of these formalities, those who proceeded to France and Holland and to have their passports stamped.

REFINANCING OF WATER CO. PLANNED

Bondholders Discuss Means to Refinance Debts of Corporation.

Examining from all angles the proposed reorganization of the Peoples Water Company, bondholders representing $3,000,000 in bonds met in the Chamber of Commerce today. R. M. Fitzgerald presided.

The Peoples Water Company is involved financially, said Fitzgerald, in opening the meeting. "The company has much money taken from other companies. Each of these had a first mortgage of bonds when taken in; a total of $2,000,000 known as underlying bonds. These bonds are now being sold. The Peoples Water Company provided for a bond issue of $2,000,000. There are issued $1,000,000."

"The company borrowed from banks and trust companies and had not holders more than $1,000,000. Out of the $2,000,000, about $1,000,000 was paid."

All of the various bondholders named committees when it was evident that the Peoples Water Company could not pay its bonds. A plan was adopted to reorganize the company, and the reorganizing plan was to authorize a first issue of bonds on the whole line; that out of this be given bonds to underlying bondholders and to bondholders the face value of their notes, which would be paid in cash or in bonds. The Peoples note holders would sacrifice their first lien."

MUST NOW ACT.
"They say 'surrender bonds' and we will give you stock." Acting immediately we met with the members of the organization and urged the 50 per cent in stock and the rest in bonds. They claimed that the railroad commission might not consent to the issuance of the bonds. In this case we felt that the stock would not amount to much and so we parted company. We now have to face this thing and see just what we have."

We believe it fair to us to take a second mortgage bond if the first went into the treasury. If they do we give them a bond on the whole thing they own. We feel that the stock would not amount to much and so we parted company. We now have to face this thing and see just what we have."

"The underlying bond holders asked 6 per cent interest. This was unfair, said the committee. What we gave them a bond on the whole thing they own. We feel that the stock would not amount to much and so we parted company. We now have to face this thing and see just what we have."

"The railroad commission will not permit bonds to the excess of 50 per cent of the value of the property as they find it. What they would do in this case I do not know."

EXCHANGE QUESTION.
"There was another condition that did not sit well; they wanted us to take stock for our bonds. They demanded that the stock be controlled by underlying bondholders. They wanted to control our property. Understand, I mean my clients whom I then represented. I have felt that a stockholder who represents, would be an advantage, but as a matter of equity the people who own the stock should control it. No one can jeopardize underlying bondholders. We have opposed the reorganization scheme because we think the present bondholders are entitled to at least a part of the holdings in second bond."

"The railroad commission will not permit bonds to the excess of 50 per cent of the value of the property as they find it. What they would do in this case I do not know."

BATTLE CONTINUES.
By Associated Press.
"TENNA, Jan. 6, via Amsterdam and London, Jan. 7.—The following official communication was issued here today:

"The battles in the Carpathian forest district, which now have lasted several months, with alternate success and minor importance, have taken place in lonely valleys widely separated from each other."

"The enemy during the last few days received reinforcements and attempted to gain ground by attacks in isolated spots on the upper reaches of the rivers. West of the Uskuk Pass and in East Beskid the situation is quiet."

TURK DISASTER COMPLETE.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Jan. 1, 12:45 p. m.—Neither Turkey nor Germany has conceded the defeat of Turkish armies in the Caucasus, as claimed officially by Petrograd. As further details of this fighting are received in London, it would appear that this reported Turkish disaster was as complete as that suffered by any forces since the outbreak of the war. In spite of this, however, the latest of the communications from Turkey altogether ignores the fighting in the Caucasus and dwells upon the struggle which has spread over the Persian frontier to Urumiah, an important town, where the Turks say that aided by Persians, they have defeated the Russians.

In Poland the Germans apparently are near Warsaw and there is little alteration in the battle front extending from the Baltic to the Carpathians. The Russians seem to be still concentrating their main effort in the Carpathian passes. At the same time they are continuing a vigorous offensive in Bukovina. The occupation of this Austrian territory, populated as it is largely by Rumanians, may soon exert, in the opinion of British observers, a powerful influence throughout Europe as bringing the Balkan situation to a head."

ALLIES VARY ATTACK.
In the western arena of military activities the allies have varied their attack which recently brought them success in the sand dunes of Flanders and in Alsace by intensifying the pressure from Rheims to the Lorraine frontier, where some ground has been gained."

The Germans meanwhile have sought to repair the damage done to their wings. This has resulted in the recovery of some ground for them near Stenbach, in upper Alsace, but their attacks in Flanders were repulsed."

MILLER SUES FOR FALSE ARREST

Asks $10,000 Damages for 18 Hours Spent in City Prison.

"Alleging that Clarence J. Black and Leonore V. Ganes had on November 12 'wickedly and maliciously and without reasonable or probable excuse or cause, procured a warrant for his arrest on a charge of burglary,' David Miller today filed in the superior court a suit for $10,000 alleged damages, declaring that the charge was without rightful foundation, and that it has since been abandoned."

Miller appeared before Police Judge Mortimer Smith on December 7, and the charge was dismissed after a hearing. Following his arrest, Miller put up $500 bail, but he had been confined in the city prison for about eighteen hours, according to his complaint against Black. Black lives at 1331 Alice street.

That he was forced to undergo a great deal of trouble and hardship as the result of the arrest, was hindered in his business and "greatly injured in his good name and reputation" are the allegations set forth in Miller's complaint in his seeking bail in the sum of $10,000. Plaintiff is represented by Gibson & Woolner and J. N. Young in his suit.

MISS GERALDINE FLOOD IS CLAIMED AS BRIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Miss Geraldine Flood, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Flood of this city, was married to Joseph V. Costello at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Mary's Cathedral. Only the immediate members of the two families were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bishop Hanna. Mass was read by Father Collins.

Miss Clara Flood, a sister of the bride, officiated as maid of honor. Richard W. Costello, the bridegroom's brother, was the best man. After a wedding breakfast at the Palace Hotel the young couple departed on a wedding tour which will take them as far as New York.

Joseph V. Costello is secretary of the firm of O'Connor, Moffatt & Co. His brother, Richard W. Costello, who attended him yesterday, is vice-president and general manager of the firm.

SELECTS NEW DIRECTORS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The Northwestern Pacific has elected the following directors: W. G. Barnard, W. A. Russell, E. S. Pillsbury, W. S. Palmer, W. R. Scott, William F. Martin, William Spruille, A. H. Payson, E. O. McCormick. The following officers were elected: President, W. S. Palmer; vice-president, W. R. Scott; treasurer, H. W. Ellis; assistant treasurer, A. K. Van Dusen; secretary, G. L. King; assistant secretary, D. P. Ewing; comptroller, W. F. Sperbeck; assistant comptroller, W. B. Norris.

CHILD WELFARE TO BE EXPOSITION ATTRACTION

Dr. Anna Strong has arrived in San Francisco for the purpose of assembling the extensive exhibit in child welfare that the Department of Labor of the Federal Government is to install in the Palace of Education at the exposition.

There are to be many unique features about the exhibit, which will occupy 4000 square feet of space, covering chiefly the subjects of infant mortality and the care of babies. One of the interesting features of the exhibit will be a children's health conference, where visiting parents and the staff of doctors in constant attendance at the exhibit. At this conference mothers may bring their children for inspection, not necessarily for curative purposes, but preventive as well. The mothers will be given detailed advice in plain phraseology.

A section of the exhibit that will prove a great attraction to the youngsters will be a model playground and playroom. This exhibit will be made with the co-operation of the San Francisco and Oakland schools. In addition to the best equipment for playgrounds, children will be shown how to make their own toys. The exhibits are en route here now in a government collier, and it is expected that the installation will be completed in ample time for the formal opening of the exhibit.

"DR." DOUGLAS NO PARTY TO DIVORCE PROCEEDING

That the "medical" treatments of "Dr." Robert Bruce Douglas, a widower, posing as a Scottish peer, who, swathed in society, until arrested on a charge of practicing medicine without a license, were mistaken for love-making in reports reaching the public after the "doctor's" arrest is the declaration of Mrs. Anthony J. Lewis, 1705 Eighty-first avenue, who, it had been declared, sued her husband for divorce following the advice of Douglas. Mrs. Lewis declares that she and her husband are reconciled, and that Douglas never posed as anything but a married man before her.

"Friends," declares Mrs. Lewis, "brought about a reconciliation between my husband and myself, and we have been living together almost since the day after I filed suit. This man Douglas had nothing to do with my divorce. I sued regardless of Dr. Douglas. He is a married man and I know his wife, and he did not make love to me. The reports to this effect were awfully hard on me and all but broke up the home again."

SINGER LAUDS OAKLAND SAYS AIR IS CARESSING

Countess de Cisneros Pays Tribute to City

"The whole world ought to live in a climate like this," said Countess Eleanor de Cisneros, this morning. "It makes people happier, and it makes them love one another."

"There is something caressing in the air," she added, touching her face lightly with caressing fingers, as she looked out at the California sunlight over Lake Merritt and the Piedmont hills.

Which was as charming and sincere a compliment any visitor could have received. Not at all the usual tribute of mechanically gracious celebrities.

Madame Cisneros, who arrived yesterday from the East and Europe is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Dargie for several weeks. This morning she was radiant with the pleasure of her arrival, wearing many flowers, and in a soft yellow morning gown with a border of great crimson roses that seemed to reflect the warmth and light of her personality. About her head was bound a brilliant yellow handkerchief, Carmine fascias.

"CARMEN" A FAVORITE ROLE. And "Carmen" is a favorite role of the singer who has won fame on several continents. She is a wonderfully fascinating woman with much of the magnetic charm and power that were Nordica's in her youth.

It is only a few weeks since she left France and the staid sadness of Paris, so the contrast of a California day doubtless seemed profound. She spoke of the wonderful calm of France, and the silent nobility of the people who in a day laid aside their gaiety and lightness for the grim business of war.

"It was like this," said Madame Cisneros, turning her hand. "Every one had thought the French were volatile and light. They are proving their nobility. No one could see the French people in war time and not know a depth of admiration for them."

IN ITALY AT OUTBREAK. "I was in Italy when war was declared and left there on the second of August. As I passed through Savoy on my way to Paris the men from the villages were all gathered at the railway stations for the mobilization, and the women were there to see them go. But not a tear. Those peasant women stood silent and calm while the men went to the front."

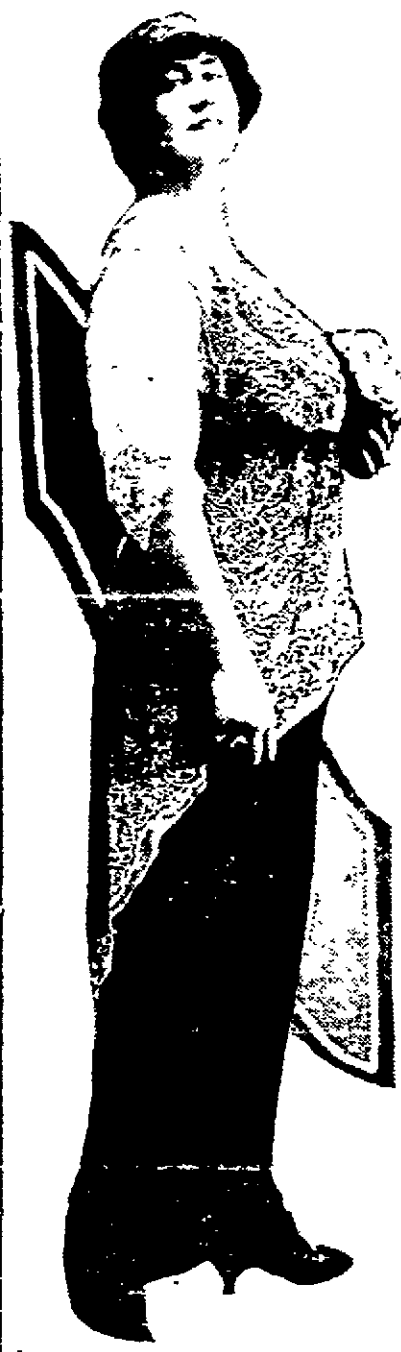

"It is the same in Paris. No tear and no hysteria, but a depth of sadness. Paris is no longer the gay French capital. There are no theaters, no opera. Singers and actors are at the front and the women are doing relief work."

TO SING IN S. F. Because of the cancelling of contracts in Europe, Madame Cisneros has come to sing at the Grand Opera House at the Symphony concert on January 23 in San Francisco, where her last appearance was as prima donna with the Chicago Opera Company, when she shared honors with Mary Garden.

Since then she has won new honors in Europe. Last winter there were brilliant seasons in Barcelona and Madrid, where she sang in "La Prophete" and "Orpheus."

In Madrid she received a command to sing at the King's birthday reception, limited to members of the royal family and the grandees of ancient lineage. Madame Cisneros was personally complimented by the Queen Mother, Maria Christina, herself a distinguished musician (and an Austrian) for her singing, and from Queen Victoria received a jeweled decoration.

Countess Cisneros is an American girl who was one of Oscar Hammerstein's discoveries a few years ago. Her marriage to the Spanish Count brought her a title, and her home is in Paris.

PEACE DAY PLAN IS PROPOSED BY CHURCH

Nearly 200 members of the Fourth Congregational Church attended the annual meeting which was held last evening in the church parlors, Thirty-sixth and Grove streets, where a supper followed the session.

Officers for 1915 were elected as follows: Church clerk, Mrs. Alice Dunham; financial secretary, A. L. Hanford; head usher, Charles W. Letter; deacons, C. E. Irving, Dr. J. C. Gilbertson and J. C. Paget; deaconesses, Mrs. C. E. Irving, Mrs. E. M. Harlow and Mrs. Baudin; new directors, C. D. Doane and J. C. Paget; treasurer, George Letter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. M. Robinson.

E. T. Letter read a history of the church. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, that we, the men of the Fourth Congregational Church of Oakland, consider April 1915 a day that ought to be observed in the interests of the promotion of peace. On that day 50 years ago General Lee met General Grant in front of Appomattox court house and the latter gave utterance to the historic words, 'Let us have peace.'"

"Resolved, further, that we do all in our power to enlighten and organize all of all kinds in the city of Oakland to join in the sitting observance of this day."

SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS TO PARADE S. F. STREETS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Sixty million dollars! Twenty-four millions of the huge amount in silver dollars. That's the tidy little sum which will be paraded through the streets of San Francisco the first week in February when the United States sub-treasury, now located at 605 Commercial street, moves into its new quarters at Pine and Sansome streets.

A contract will be awarded some individual concern for the transportation of the gold, and the teams hauling it will be guarded either by a squad of police or soldiers from the Presidio. How many loads there are to be is not known as yet, but it is expected that the work will consume two or three days.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL OPPOSED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—After several days of persistent effort by administration leaders the ship purchase bill was placed before the Senate for discussion today and Senator Burton opened debate for its opponents. He said he viewed the bill from an absolutely non-partisan standpoint and believed the questions involved should not be settled with any regard for party advantage.

"I believe this bill will prove ineffectual for the restoration of the American merchant marine and that it offers serious danger that privileged business interests will be built up," he said.

SHIRTWAIST DANCE LESADEL CLUB EVENT

The Lesadel Club of East Oakland will give a benefit "shirt waist dance" at St. Anthony's hall, Sixteenth avenue and East Sixteenth street, tomorrow evening. The proceeds will be given to the basketball team for new uniforms. The team intends to play a number of games about the bay cities.

The hall will be decorated with the club's colors and a large crowd is expected. The following is the committee: George Millett, chairman; Robert Harding, Richard Harding, Leo Cunningham, William Hanly, William Brubaker.

CORPORATIONS LOSE "HOUSE MOVING" LAW

The city council today voted down an ordinance prepared at the instance of public service corporations using the streets for poles and wiring, which would transfer the expense of shifting wires to allow houses to be moved through the streets from the corporation to the house-mover.

The present city ordinance designates certain points at which house-movers may be permitted to move structures through the lines of the traction, power, lighting and telephone companies, but makes no provision as to who shall meet the expense of raising the wires.

The corporations complained that they were put to an expense approximating $15 to $20 every time a house was moved through wires at any point, and asked that the house-mover foot the bill. The house-movers protested that the extra expense would put them out of business.

MOTHERS' PENSION LAW OF ARIZONA ATTACKED

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Jan. 7.—The Arizona mothers' pension law, approved by the people at the election November 2, was attacked today in a suit filed in the superior court by attorneys engaged by the Prescott Chamber of Commerce. The validity of the statute, an initiated measure, is questioned and the court is petitioned to enjoin its enforcement. Under the law, all state charitable institutions are to be sold to provide a fund out of which to pay pensions to widowed mothers and to aged dependents.

The petition filed in behalf of the chamber of commerce today alleges that the act, which received a majority of approximately 13-00 votes at the election, is invalid, and seeks to have an injunction issued to prevent the sale of state institutional property.

EMPLOYEES OWN PART OF COMPANY

Pacific Gas and Electric Corporation Issues Financial Statement.

More than 1600 employees of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, or 40 per cent of the permanent staff, are shareholders in the corporation, according to the financial statement issued this morning by the management. Customers of the company own more than $1,000,000 worth of the latest issue of stock, the statement continues.

The official statement sets forth: "On August 15, 1914, the company announced the sale of $3,750,000 par value of its new issue of first preferred 6 per cent stock. The following table shows the distribution of this issue:

	Number of Shares	Par Value of Shares Taken
Employees	1521	$48,630
Customers	1162	1,235,000
Stockholders, etc.	712	6,375,000
Total	3395	$7,758,630

"The participation of employees and customers of the company is particularly noteworthy. Sixteen hundred and twenty-one of the company's employees, constituting about 40 per cent of its permanent staff, have become shareholders, and 1162 of the company's customers have purchased $1,235,000 worth of the new stock. Geographical distribution of customers is as follows: California, 60 per cent; other states, 40 per cent. The company's territory is being made at the average rate of about 10,000 per day, and the allotment of stock set aside to meet anticipated stock-holders of the new stock is in the company's circular letter of August 15, 1914, promises to become exhausted in the very near future."

OWNED ON COAST. "The company now has outstanding about $1,000,000 par value of stock, including its common, junior preferred and first preferred. As shown in the following statement, almost one-half of this stock is owned on the Pacific coast. The proportion of Pacific coast holdings has increased almost 10 per cent during the last six months, and with the continuing distribution of first preferred stock among local investors will probably show further increase. Of the total number of individual stock-holders of the company, 70 per cent of the total number are residents of California, having first-hand knowledge of the company's properties, business and management. That this ownership is an element of great value to the company goes without saying. The geographical distribution of holders of all classes of capital stock issued and subscribed for is shown in this table:

Holders	Shares	Par Value
Pacific Coast	224,731	$22,473,100
Outside West	73	65,574
Eastern Coast	165,450	16,545,000
Europe	333	42,209
Total	402,517	$40,259,683

In view of the bond market's reluctance to absorb new issues from any source, the company decided to put a stock issue, approved by the railroad commission and made attractive to investors by surrounding the new shares with safeguards that placed them almost in the class of bonds, as far as safety is concerned. "The stock was sold at $82.50 and the dividend rate was fixed at 6 per cent, thus producing a yield of 7.27 per cent."

IN FIVE MINUTES NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Is the Quickest and Surest Stomach Relief.

If what you just ate is souring or your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas, and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, had food in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes. Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin. This will tell you all the food you eat is digested and assimilated. It is the blood of all kinds of dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must eat, and why it relieves, sour, out-of-order stomach or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless, tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need resort to laxatives or live pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and fit yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.—Adv.

This prior preferred stock was given first call on the earnings of the company, after the deduction of operating, maintenance, and reserve charges on the interest debt, before the common or preferred stock of other issues can participate in the earnings. The demands of the new prior preferred stock have not been satisfied. This dividend on the new stock is made a lien on the earnings, following immediately after the bonds.

STATE SUPERVISION. "In the case of the issue under discussion, the safety of the investment, given efficient management of the utility, seems unshakable. The concern's gross earnings decreased from more than nine million in 1913 to more than sixteen million in 1914. Its gas and electric rates are not subject to arbitrary sweeping reductions, and it is the policy of the utility railroad commission to protect utilities giving good service at reasonable rates against cut-throat competition. Furthermore, the commission exercises strict supervision over the financial manipulation and inflation of their capital is now almost an impossibility. Though many corporations continue to complain about the rigors of supervision, the exacting of the state are of unquestionable value in the raising of new capital of the reinforcing the confidence of the investing public."

Taboo on Mascot Would Literally "Get Their Goat"

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—"Give up Camille the Goat? Never!" This is the protest of the sailors. They would not lose their goat, nor would they have their goat taken from their affectionate care. A young lieutenant, C. J. Pilgram, who was transferred to the South Dakota, home of the affectionate and odorous pet, didn't like "Camille." He turned up his aristocratic nose. Then he ordered all hands on deck to leave the goat out.

"Aw, Nix!" protested the sailors. They wouldn't mind shooting Mexican cities full of holes, or mining a bay, or sinking a battleship, but a goat touches a hair of a white goat, they say, is courting a fight.

An appeal will be made to Commander J. M. Reeves, U. S. N., in charge of the vessel, and even to the secretary of the navy. Elusive men have they claim, always been allowed pet, and Secretary Daniels is known to be in sympathy with this. The different ships have goats, bears or other animals, and their men say that if a naval officer can't stand a goat he's going to have a fine time in Uncle Sam's navy before he goes very far.

Novel Legal Point Is Brought Up in Homicide Case.

Woodland, Jan. 7.—Unprecedented in this State, a unique point developed yesterday in the homicide case of Walter Wood, charged with the murder near Davis on December 17 of William Cronin, alias "Frisco" Mickey. Whether or not a homicide is justifiable when committed in defense of another not a relative is the issue in the case which will be up to Superior Judge Anderson.

OAKLAND BOYS AND GIRLS

Bright Chinese Pupil
To Become Diplomat

HARRY QUON.

Harry Quon, a nine year old Chinese pupil in the Lincoln grammar school, who is one of the brightest boys in his class, said that he will enter the University of California, after completing his education in the elementary schools and there he will study for the diplomatic service. He declares that he will return to China, after he completes his education. PUPILS "SKIP" GRADES,
AND SAVE CROWDING

According to a rule established by the Oakland Board of Education, the maximum number of pupils to be enrolled in the classes will be as follows: Kindergarten, 30 pupils, the kindergarten to be divided into a morning and afternoon session when the enrollment reaches 30; elementary schools, 50, and high schools, 45 students.

In the grammar schools, the brightest children are being permitted to skip grades, and in that manner the crowding condition in the class rooms is also being relieved. Nathalie Garfield, 10 years old, has skipped three grades in the Lincoln grammar school, and is now a pupil in the high seventh grade. Provision has been made for ungraded and special classes for pupils who are unable to work satisfactorily in regular classes. The boys and girls will be transferred from the vocational school to ungraded, if they fail to advance with their classes.

ANTI-KAMMIA TABLETS FOR Locomotor Ataxia

In every interesting article on Locomotor Ataxia, Dr. Henry O. Story says that drugs have practically no beneficial effect in these cases. He says that rest should be insisted upon, and there should be no worries or excitement. Plenty of fresh air and moderate exercise must be insisted upon, but over-exercising is injurious. The use of tobacco and alcohol should be strictly forbidden, and over-eating is dangerous, especially when the foot is poorly massaged. The food must be of the most nourishing kind, and the quantity and variety must be changed so that the patient will not lose his appetite. The most annoying symptom in these cases is the pain which at times is almost unbearable. Dr. Story says that he has used two Anti-Kammia Tablets repeated hourly if necessary, gives prompt relief and is good to the patient. These Tablets can be had at all drug stores in any quantity desired. Ask for A. K. Tablets. Also unexcelled for headaches, neuralgia and pain.

DROPS WILL CONTEST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—A contest of the will of the late H. William Westerfeld by his sister, Emma W. Hertel, was dismissed by Judge Graham yesterday at the request of Mrs. Hertel. Mrs. Hertel averred in the petition to have the will declared invalid that her brother would have bequeathed her a portion of his estate if he had not been under the influence of his wife.

When you darken your hair with our Gray and Sulphur, no one can tell, and it's just as natural as your own hair. Properly used, this mixture, though, at home is so simple and trouble-free. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic "Gray and Sulphur" and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the hair will begin to turn, and by the other application or two, your hair comes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling out.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we grow older we desire a youthful and attractive hair. The Gray and Sulphur Compound, which is at all drug stores, is "Gray and Sulphur" and look for a younger, more luxuriant.

Message of Governor Johnson.

In his biennial message to the Legislature, Governor Johnson has treated all subjects handled in an exhaustive manner. If those who read fail to comprehend it is not the fault of the executive.

His first plea is for more money. This is based on the fact that the abolition of the poll tax and the abatement of the corporation license tax have inflicted a loss in revenue to the commonwealth of approximately $3,300,000 every two years and to make this good, and at the same time provide for activities that have broadened as a result of the actions of the voters in enlarging and creating, other ways and means of providing funds must be provided. The activities alluded to are the Railroad Commission, the Industrial Accident Commission and the adoption of the free school text book system. The work of the Railroad Commission having been extended to municipalities with respect to the fixing of rates for service by utility corporations, this body must have more money. The activities of the Industrial Accident Commission demand more and the free text book system needs additional funds.

The executive asks that these agencies of government be given the amounts their importance demands, and in connection with the appeal made on their behalf we find a note of economy couched in the following language:

"I ask that in the matter of appropriations rigid economy be observed, not an economy that will cripple the service of the State and in the end prove more costly than reasonable expenditure, but a rigid economy in undertaking new projects which are as yet without the sanction of the people."

From which expression and others following we infer that the governor is not in favor of indulging in any new experiments in government at this time.

Pursuing the subject of economy it is noted that the governor urges living within the revenues. His advice on this topic is: "The needs of the state, no matter how great they may be, must be compressed in great measure, within the percentage derived from taxation."

Following his statements concerning the necessity of increased taxes and the urgency of economy, the governor devotes a greater part of his message to a review of the work of various boards, commissions and officials, all of which are commended in somewhat extensive review of their labors since their installment. Particularly is this true with respect to the Railroad Commission, the State Industrial Commission and the State Board of Control.

To indulge in comment on each suggestion made is a physical impossibility. Those interested must read such portions as affect their interests as individuals or as members of corporations and form their own conclusion as to the effect of policies recommended.

Taking the document as an entirety we find much therein to commend, particularly with respect to the checking of further legislation and the intention to devote more time to the solution of problems created since Governor Johnson assumed office four years ago.

City Activity Insanity's Cause.

Numerous reasons for the increase in the number of cases of insanity have been ascribed during the past few years, among which we have read times without number that alcohol is responsible for a preponderance of mental disorder. But an educational journal published back east takes issue with this latter view, both by inference and in statement, and says:

Nobody knows how many feeble-minded there are in the United States. For some years we have been estimating the number as about the same as the insane. We are fairly confident that about one in every 500 of the entire population—more in the northwest and fewer in the west and south—is insane. We also know the proportion of the insane is steadily growing larger. As towns and cities grow, as life becomes more complex and the stress of circumstances heavier, the human mind may, perhaps, grow stronger, but not so rapidly as the strain upon it grows. So more breaks occur.

So here we have an authority, as good, perhaps, as any, declaring that the strenuousness of existence is the principal cause for reason abandoning their seat. And so confident is the writer alluded to in the integrity of his contentions that he goes farther into the subject and prescribes a remedy for conditions. This remedy is not to be applied to the cure of those already stricken, but as a preventative on behalf of those who may be.

It is urged that mental capacity is largely the result of growth and development, this being the rule. To provide for the attainment of mental capacity in a large degree it is suggested that cities provide play, good, clean amusements, outdoor activities and the various exercises which enter so vitally into the development of the human. It is also urged that the right amount of study, exercise, amusement and relaxation are all absolutely necessary to preserve the normality and to make for the larger degree of individual efficiency.

That the activities alluded to are necessary to physical development and consequent improvement in mental growth, has long been conceded, and from coast to coast municipalities have been enlarging their opportunities for the children to play. But it appears by reading the foregoing—if we are to accept it as truth, and it certainly sounds reasonable—these opportunities should be extended to adults so that as the child develops into maturity he may continue the course that has made for his improvement in adolescent and pre-adolescent days. Hence if we assume the hypothesis of the educational authority quoted as correct, and cities should so provide, in a vast majority of instances insanity would be a self-inflicted punishment for those who disregarded the chance to abandon stress of business and caring care and get out in the public places and enjoy a romp at stated intervals. We are not prepared to say that the premises of the easterner are correct in every detail, but we hope they are, for if so it will not be long ere the fostering hand of government will find it cheaper in the end to provide playgrounds for the mentally sound than asylums and hospitals for the mentally deficient.

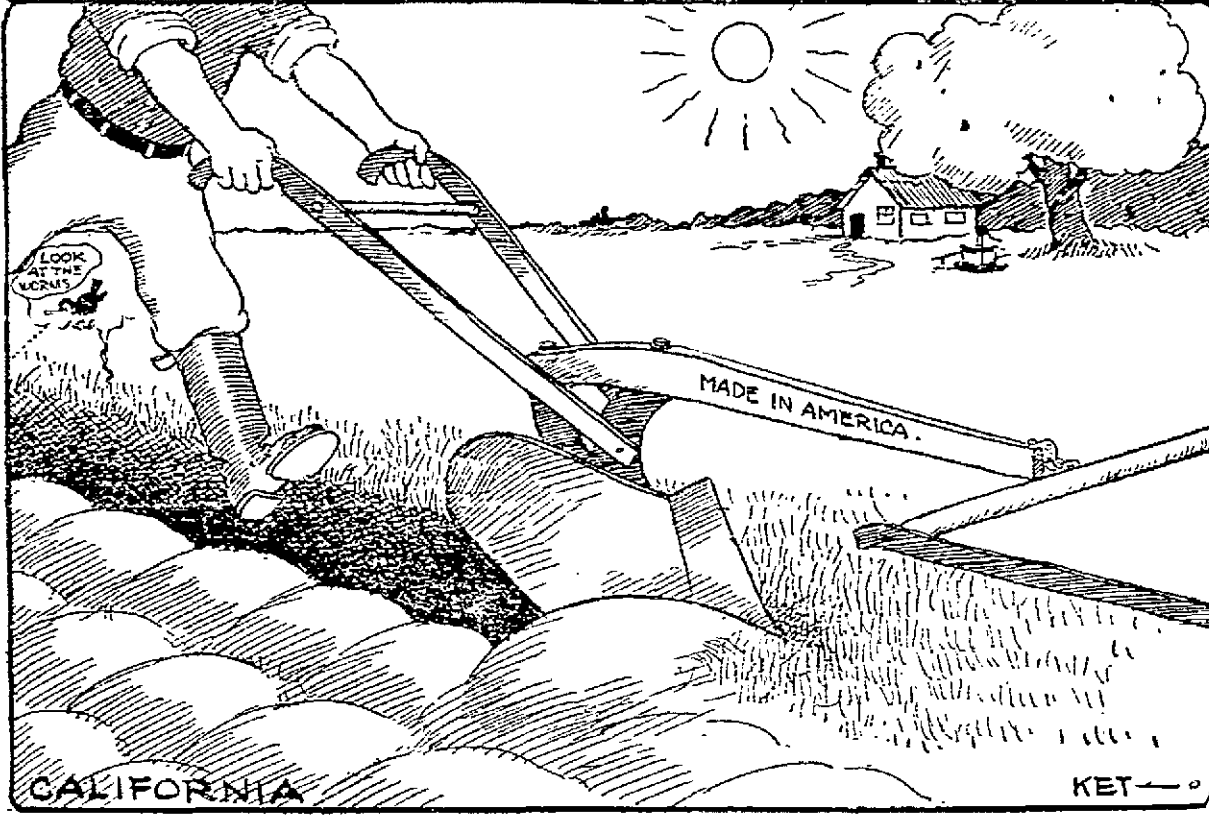

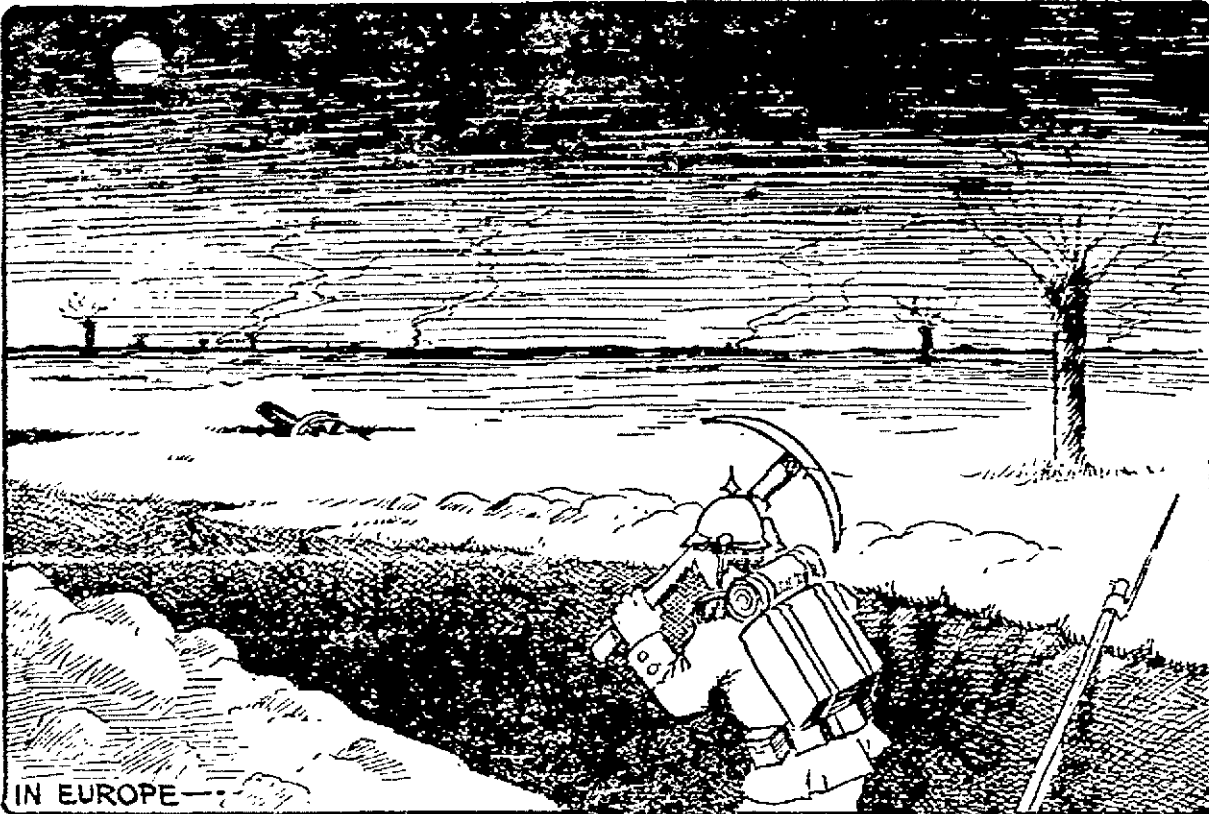

All Hail, San Diego.

San Diego's Panama-California Exposition is a success from the start, is drawing thousands of visitors, is giving them many times the value of their money by the excellence of the exhibits and in every way is a credit to the city and California.

THE TRIBUNE rejoices at this condition of affairs and is glad to learn that every person who has visited the San Diego exposition is enthusiastic in praise of the display, the city that houses it and the enterprise of the men and women who have made it. San Diego is a part of this great Golden State of ours and has manifested a spirit of energy that is in line with that of other sections of this commonwealth and commendable in the extreme. The city has spent money lavishly and has spared no pains in making its world's fair something to marvel over, to admire and praise.

Very soon the great Panama-Pacific Exposition will swing open its gates for the entertainment of the thousands who will visit the Coast, attracted by the multiplicity of wonders that will be there. This paper hopes the attendance will be double, aye, triple the amount estimated by the most sanguine of the promoters. But at the same time it also hopes that every man and woman from the East who comes here to enjoy and appreciate the great collection of marvels from all over the world, will consider it their duty and one that cannot be conscientiously evaded, to also visit the great fair at San Diego, and that every Californian who can possibly do so shall also patronize this great effort on behalf of the enterprising city in the sunny southland, which is entitled to credit for its efforts and to which this State owes a debt for the advertising it is receiving through such effort.

TRENCHES

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Central Christian Church of this city, which was organized about six months ago, is to have an inaugural service. The pastor-elect of the church, Rev. Cador Edwards Davis, who is to be installed, will be remembered by a wide acquaintance in his long residence in Oakland. He attended, in turn, the Lafayette, Lincoln and High Schools.

Under-Sheriff Harlow received the first copy of his second and revised edition of "Harlow on Sheriffs and Constables." The book is a fine literary piece and is invaluable to lawyers.

Articles of incorporation of Trinity parish were filed with the county clerk. The corporation at the present time has a chapel on California avenue. The directors of the corporation are: John Bakewell, Frank Hubbard, Webb N. Pearce, John H. H. M. Sabin, Milton B. Dilling, John Hampton, Donald V. Campbell, D. M. Douth, A. F. Gunn, Joseph Sanders.

After several days of hard work on the part of the Porter brothers of Temescal, the names on the petition for the annexation of the territory lying between Berkeley and Oakland have been checked off and the petition has been placed on file in the City Clerk's office. The document contains 2699 signatures.

There was much excitement in the vicinity of San Lorenzo and Hayward last evening. The San Lorenzo creek has been booming during the storm and it was expected that it would cause some trouble. Last night the bank of the creek broke about a mile north of Hayward, causing much damage. A large quantity of water went through the orchards of Horvick, Edward Hathaway and the Martin place. The water carried away bridges and fences and the roots of hundreds of fruit trees in the orchards were laid bare. A portion of the railroad track between Hayward and San Lorenzo was carried away, stopping all traffic for a couple of hours. In some places along the Mt. Eden road land could not be seen for half a mile.

HOW CZAR BUILT PETROGRAD

When the world's imagination is taken by the story of the building of the city of Petrograd, formerly known as St. Petersburg, the capital of the Russian empire, it is not without reason.

In the center of Admiralty Square, within the shadow of Peter the Great statue, stands the statue of Peter the Great, founder of St. Petersburg. The statue is a masterpiece of sculpture, and it is a fitting tribute to the founder of the city.

The city of St. Petersburg was founded by Peter the Great in 1703. It was a city of the future, a city of the world, a city of the East and the West. It was a city of the future, a city of the world, a city of the East and the West.

U. C. Savant Disputing Weissmann, May Blaze Road in Genetics.

BERKELEY, Jan. 7. — Conclusions of the famous scientific and social value and the variety of opinions held by the majority of biologists with regard to heredity, are expected to be the subject of a series of experiments which are being conducted by Dr. F. B. Sumner of the University of California, assistant to the director of the Biological Station at Berkeley. Dr. Sumner has been at work on Weissmann and others that acquired bodily characteristics are not transmissible. The majority of scientists still hold that whatever effect a man's environment may have on him, it will play no part in the modification of his descendants.

The conflict on this question of the transmission of acquired characteristics has been a long one. It is not only biologically but in a humanitarian way. Dr. Sumner has been at work on Weissmann and others that acquired bodily characteristics are not transmissible. The majority of scientists still hold that whatever effect a man's environment may have on him, it will play no part in the modification of his descendants.

It is expected to be some time before Dr. Sumner carries his experiments to a point where he is able to announce final conclusions. He has so far been able to determine the direction which the experiments are taking. The Weissmann theory, special appropriation has been made for his work in the assistance of the various departments, especially that of zoology. Once the promulgation of the theories of Darwin may have been the background for many imposing scientific conflicts. Two theories grew out of these struggles. One party held the inheritance of a "germ plasm" through which living characteristics were transmitted. The other found also what it called the influence of the environment on the modification of organisms.

WEISSMANN THEORY. The Weissmann followers have accepted the hypothesis of a "germ plasm" as the basis of heredity. They believe that the influence of the environment on the inheritance of acquired characteristics is negligible. Dr. Sumner and others of the biological minority, not only justify their theory on the ground of fact, but on ethical grounds as well. In the opinion of the majority, the influence of the environment on the inheritance of acquired characteristics is negligible. Dr. Sumner and others of the biological minority, not only justify their theory on the ground of fact, but on ethical grounds as well.

Dr. Sumner and others of the biological minority, not only justify their theory on the ground of fact, but on ethical grounds as well.

WIDE SCOPE. That his conclusions may be based on the fullest possible data, Dr. Sumner is leaving no stone unturned in his experiments. These he is extending, not only to marine life forms, but to animal life as well. In fact, the scope of his new departure, the Scripps Institution, is at present his chief activity. Not only the manner of animal reactions to the testing of the germ plasm theory, but the influence of the environment on the inheritance of acquired characteristics is being tested. He is testing it as well, trying to test his hypotheses on as large a number of subjects as possible.

HOW TO CURE A LA GRIPPE COUGH. "Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking la grippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pain in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Syrup than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of successes proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of the throat and chest, nothing will compare with this reliable remedy. Sold everywhere.

Scientist to Trace Lineage of Indian Tribes in America

BERKELEY, Jan. 7. — When came the American Indian, a question which has for years been agitating scientists, will be considered by Dr. Alex. Hrdlicka of the Smithsonian Institution in a lecture at the San Francisco Institute of Art tomorrow evening. His subject is to be "The Physical Characteristics of the American Indian with the Races of Eastern Asia." The place of origin of the Indian has been a subject for speculation for many years. In the opinion of the majority of scientists, the Indian came from Eastern Asia by way of the Aleutian Islands.

Dr. Hrdlicka will discuss the relation of man to the higher apes. Very interesting remarks of human beings with an ape like skull have been unearthed in England, opening again for scientific discussion the theories of Darwin. Both lectures are given under the auspices of the San Francisco Institute of Art.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 7. — The proposed closing of Harrison avenue and the granting of leases to the property owners on the south side of that thoroughfare for the canal, has been a subject for some months, was awakened by an opinion filed with the city council by the city attorney. SAYS OUR GO-EDS HAVE FLAT FEET

Masculine and Feminine M. D.'s Eyes Differ, However on Deformity.

BERKELEY, Jan. 7. — Apparently it makes a difference whether you view women's feet through male or female eyes as to how perfect they appear. Dr. Kate H. Thompson, assistant medical examiner at the University of California, says that 65 per cent of the university women have flat feet. On the other hand, Dr. A. M. Meade, assistant medical examiner, finds that only 10 per cent of the university men have flat feet.

There were 400 women and 100 men examined at the infirmary during the college year and of these only 100 men, he says, had flat longitudinal arches and only one had a flat anterior arch. Though seeing much distasteful in the correction of the deformity, Dr. Thompson has hope for the future. Special care in the selection of shoes has already effected complete cures of flat feet, she explains, and renewed efforts to correct the deformity she promises for next semester.

DANGERS OF BATTLE TOLD BY CANTATRICE

BOMBS FALL IN HER PARIS GARDEN

She Brings to Berkeley Thrilling Narrative of War and Voyage.

PARIS GARDEN. — Seated in a Paris garden with the bombs of German aircraft dropping all around, one of the many experiences of Miss Una Fairweather of 1212 Le Roy avenue, recently returned from the war zone.

Miss Fairweather has been abroad for several years, studying music under the noted lastmaster of the war zone.

She was caught in Paris when the war broke out. Miss Fairweather's experiences were thrilling in the extreme, not because the personal dangers alone but from the novelty and diversity of the experiences.

They saw the ship become a German ship of the air and when the machine reached the outskirts of Paris, bombs were dropped from the airship and fell in the streets of Paris, killing innocent persons.

LESSON FROM PAST. Miss Fairweather told Miss Fairweather that the present war was but a reminder of her experiences of 1910 when she was in the streets of Paris, killed by a German plane.

PARIS AT NIGHT. Miss Fairweather stated, that the night of the attack on Paris, she was in the streets of Paris, killed by a German plane.
